Attorneys for Plaintiff,
Vickie Lynn Walker

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH
CENTRAL DIVISION

VICKIE LYNN WALKER, an individual, Plaintiff, v. JASON K. BROWN, an individual; JERRY KERSHAW, an individual; WEST STATES INVESTMENTS, INC., doing business as WEST STATES INVESTMENTS, a Utah corporation; and DOES 1 through 10, Defendants.	WALKER'S RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THE COURT SHOULD NOT ENTER JUDGMENT Case No. 2:09CV811DAK Judge Dale A. Kimball
--	--

Vickie Walker does not oppose the defendants' confession of judgment and request for entry of judgment on Walker's first cause of action for breach of contract. Consistent with the confession of judgment Walker requests that judgment be entered against each of the defendants, jointly and severally, on Walker's breach of contract claim in the principal amount of $250,000, together with interest thereon at the rate of twelve percent per year from September 2007 until paid.

Walker further requests that the court enter an order certifying the judgment on Walker's breach of contract claim as a final judgment under rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, pursuant to the parties' stipulated joint motion being filed along with this response brief.

Jason Brown, one of the defendants, has told Walker that he intends to pay the judgment and settle Walker's claims within 30 days. Based on this representation Walker has agreed to temporarily suspend seeking a judgment against defendants on her remaining causes of action. Defendants, in turn, have agreed to have final judgment on Walker's breach of contract claim entered against them so that Walker can obtain a judgment lien without further delay and secure her priority over other creditors of defendants if defendants fail to satisfy the judgment.

DATED this 12th day of November 2009.
